Sapienza University of Rome is just that place. With over 700 years of history, we have been nurturing students for centuries. Sapienza University, which was founded in 1303 as the Studium Urbis, is the university with the largest student population in Europe: over 115,000 students.

Merging centuries of knowledge and tradition with cutting-edge research and innovation, Sapienza provides a unique environment, where students are encouraged to exchange ideas and philosophies. And it all takes place in one of the most breath-taking cities in the world: Rome.
